

The Bristol Cookhouse

TO HIRE

Cookhouse: Workshops

It's what Bristol chefs tell us they've been looking for. A multi-purpose space available to rent for educational workshops, healthy cookery classes, photography and filming. Aside from a chef's kitchen, the room is stripped back with removable furniture, so you can make the space your own. It's even equipped for training and workshops!

Cookhouse: Studio

Whether you're a sushi chef, an organic butcher, a raw chocolatier, a pad Thai expert, a vegan connoisseur or a French charcutier, and you want to host cookery demonstrations or workshops, our food studio provides a backdrop that will make your food sing.

Cookhouse: Community

The Bristol Cookhouse also aims to be very much part of its local community. The space is available to hire on an hourly rate in the evenings (minimum 2 hours) for community groups and clubs such as:

- Singing groups
- Book groups
- Networking
- Yoga and Pilates classes
